Experiment – The task

- 11 subjects with schizophrenia and 11 healthy controls
- visual associative learning task: objects in the cells of a 3-by-3 grid
- Encoding phase: the objects were shown on their places one by one
- Retrieval phase: only cues were given, patients had to tell what was the object in the cell
- phases were separated by resting periods.
- 8 learning epochs in a row.